Haimanot, I am having a meeting with Suzanne this morning to discuss who might take over my duties. It may be Lisa or it may not, I asked lisa to sit in on the modeling call tomorrow just to fill in for any gaps that might happen after I am gone. We'll let you know shortly. Ken

Lisa,

I wonder if you will be the lead reviewing the upcoming Dewey-Burdock ISR SEIS to be finalized later this year.

If yes, Haimanot Yilma, PM for the DB project, and I would like to have a brief conference call with you to update you on the current status and schedule.

Please let me know.

Thanks.

Kevin
